I suppose there is not in the whole of a physicism's experience anything in human suffering which calls not him as a supparity and pity, to such an extent - to witness the exercicularing paths of a moor mortal suffering from the nearful disense of a non-matsum. Heretofore there has been considerable disersity of opinion among medical menses to the true character of this disense, some locating it in the fineous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disorder, but it is now generally admitted to be a cheense arising from a poison circulated in the blood, and further it is admitted to be a cheense arising from a poison circulated in the blood, and further it is submitted that rhearmatism can never be theroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood by a constitutional internal remedy. THANKSGIVING DAY.

Washington, Oct. 20, 176 By the President of the United States

America: From year to year we have been ac customed to pause in our daily pursuats and set apart a time to offer our thanks to the Almighty God for special bless ings he has vouchsafed to us, with our prayers for a continuence thereof. We have at this time equal reason to be thankful for his continued protection and many material blesseing which his bounty has bestowed. In addition to these layers accorded to us as individuals, we have especial occasion to express our hearty thanks to Almighty God that by nis pigvidence and guidance our Government established a century ago, has been enabled to fulfill the purpose of its It is moreover especially our duty to offer our humbie prayers to the Frther of all mercies for a continuation of lis-divine favor to us as a Nation and ay individuals. By reason of all these cons derations, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend to the people of the United States to devote the 30th day of November, next, to an expression of their thanks and prayers to Almighty God, and laying aside their daily avocations and all secular occupations, to assemble in their respec-tive places of worship and observe such as a day of thunksgiving and rest.

In 1797 John Adams received 71 votes in the electoral college and Thomas Jefferson 68, 1n 1801 Jefferson received 73 and Burr 73, and the election was decided by the house. We do not intend to pay any bets who is elected. If the decision should be that Mr Hayes is elected, we shall go to Mr. Tilden and ask him to fill out a paper saying that the endihas been reached and that Mr. Hayes is the president. If he signs his name to such a document, then we will pay the bets. If it is declared that Mr. Tilden is elected, we shall expect a like document from Gov. Haves. We do not intend to put curselves in a position where we may be annoyed any more about the money. It certainly has been an annoyance so far.

One of the evils of our political system, which seems to be beyond the each of amendments or laws, is the disgraceful spectacle which has been decisions, and endeavoring to arrive at pectation, the Democrats have seeni n occasion for a threat.

In the Louisi- real condition of affairs. ana matter they have threatened Kellogg, have threatened the Returning Board, have promised to go to war, have promised to refuse to count the electorai vote, and all in the event of the Returning Board discharging the duty clearly imposed on it by law.

We challenge the Democrate who may be ashamed of their party's course in this matter, to point to an instance in which a Republican has threatened to set aside by force any legal proceedings which may favor the Democratic party, or to interfere in any way or in the slightest degree with the legal rights of Democrats. This contrast between the general tone and policy of "The fair, candid and manly bearing of the two bodies has been so marked, that the Ohio men, their evident design to no one can fail to perceive it. On the have a fair deal, and nothing more or one hand, the Republicans have desired less, has produced a most favorable of nothing so much as to submit the whole feet" These are the representatives of bodies authorized by law to settle it; Gov. Hayes. The Times has no good on the other hand, the Democrats have word for the democrats representing steadily shown a distrust and jealousy of the law and of constituted authority, and have endeavored in every way to substitute the jurisdiction of the mob

This bullying process has now gone unfairness, and rather than go into of lot it. The Democracy is not exactly fice under the slightest suspicion of the body which is entitled to do any wrong, he will publicly decline to go in is likely to accomplish anything by at all. Now will somebody point out threats. As the law is certain to prean expression by Mr. Tilden similar to vail in the end, it might be as well to this? Or are we to understand that lend every assistance to its operations, Messrs. Hewitt, John Morrissey and and if that requires too much sacrifice, it is certainly not too much to ask that the threats and menaces be discontinued when they only render these ridiculous

WATTERSON ON LOUISIANA.

Gen. Comly, the editor of the Ohio State Journal, is provoked into saying this of the confederate Major Watterson, of the Courier Journal, who has gone to New Orleans in the character of fire eater :

M. Henri Watterson is prancing about with his head and tail (and perhaps more) in a state of elevation, smelling the battle. When Monsieur Henri calle through the lines about 1864 in a little two candidates, no one had a clear majority of the electoral vote, and the election was completed by the house of truce beginning a little below where the roundabout ended, he was not so brash about having the fighting beginning.

THE New York Herald says of the Louisiana Returning Board and the law: "The prominent gentlemen of both parties who have gone down to New Orleans are not there to prevent such investigations as the law commands, or to curtail the powers or ac-tion of the Returning Board as presoribed by the State law, but to see that the investigations are conducted fairly and without wrong to either party. It may be that the law is a bad one but no one has now the authority to change it. It may be, and, in fact, it is true, that the members of the Returning Board are not proper persons to act without suspicion in so grave a matter, but they are lawfully there, 147 democrate to 143 republicans, with and because they are not proper perthree seats vacant. The only elements sons therefore the President has invited of uncertainty in this enumeration are more honorable and more highly rethe following: In Florida we claim spected citizens to go to New Orleans to watch them. The Duty of all Good Citizens.

The duty of all good citizens now, both North and South, is to give that highest proof of political capacity which consists in ability to bear patiently the errors of administrators and the omissions of legislators, and to remember that the success of the government and the happiness and prosperity of the people do not depend on any one election or any one president. If the next president does not obtain his place in a satisfactory and fair manner, do not let us get in a passion over it. Such things will happen now and again under all political systems, and the value of frequent elections lies in the fact that each supplies a remedy for the faults or misfortunes of the preceding one. The worst that will happen, if there is any cheating now, is that the party guilty of conniving at it or profiting by it will have disappeared before 1880 under a load of infamy; but it is the business of the voters to see that the government suffers thereby no loss of credit or repute, and the country no loss of confidence in its ability to meet all emergen cies, whether of war or peace.-Nation

If the United States statutes were less explicit, there still could be no doubt of the duty and authority of the supervisors to inspect and canvass every vote cast for each and every candidate, state, parochial and federal, as the law any separation of election for representatives to congress and from the election of State and parish officers. The electends to the entire election, a full knowledge of which may well become necessary to defeat fraud, in which opinion the attorney general of the State of Louisiana coincided, whereupon the protestants claim admittance to all the sessions of the returning board, The court is not now in session, and and protest against their exclusion as will not convene in regular session un unwarranted by law, as informed by contemplated to be done hereafter in said proceedings of said board.

Protests were also filed by counsel of candidates for office against all secret sessions of the board.

Counsel for the democratic candi dates also filed protests on behalf of the democratic electors not named on the tickets in the Fourteenth senatorial district. The tickets contained the names of Wm. P. Kellogg, J. W. Burch, Oscar Jefferson, and no others. Counsel protested against the fifst counting of said ballots, which have not been cast in favor of said Joseph and the others named, or for any others except those specially named upon said tickets or ballote.

Second-Permitting of returns from COLUMBIA, Nov. 21-The board of said parishes-especially of Iberville canvassers made their report to the and St. Martins—showing all of such supreme court to day, on Electors and ballots to have been cast for said Josstate officers. The court now permits eph, and others, they being, in said rethe board of canvassers to decide only spect false and fraudulent, or to be so considered so before this body and cated by the returns. This action will said votes to be counted for no electors decide the question of governor. The except said Kellogg, Burch and court will set to morrow regarding the Jefferson, whose names only are on said The above protest is based on the following grounds: That the title to the position of elector can be received or derived only by a direct vote of the people, and no vote can be given and counted except when placed in the ballot box. That the electors were chosen under the election laws of the state, which requires the names of the Washington. Among the propositions of the Army Reorganization Board is one making 75 men the quota of each company, to be kept at this standard in time of peace, but in time of war the maximum is to be $250 men.
